Wanted chief justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court in April the S. J. CS current leader Edward Hennessy reaches the mandatory retirement age of seventy and a successor is expected to be named in March. It may be the most important appointment Governor Michael Dukakis makes during the remainder of his administration and one of the toughest as WBUR's Margo Melnicove reports. Hennessy will be a hard act to follow.

The author of more than eight hundred state supreme court opinions, Hennessy is widely respected for his legal scholarship and his administrative abilities. Admirers give Hennessy much of the credit for sweeping court reform that began a decade ago and for the last years legislative approval of thirty-five new judgeships and three hundred million dollars to restore crumbling court houses. Despite the state's massive budget deficit, Hennessy recently urged colleagues in the bar association not to retreat from these hard-won gains
